SOCIAL TRIVIA FOR SENIORS

FOR SENIORS WHO WANT TO STIMULATE THEIR MEMORY

Treat your retired clientele to a leisurely, stimulating ramble through their decades of golden memories with Memory Lane Trivia, which has been specifically designed for your over 50's senior clients to enjoy.

Memory Lane Trivia provides an entertaining thinking game that many of your mature customers will enjoy. Keeping their memory active is often on their mind. It has been proven that brain games, like trivia, aid with memory retention. As trivia is played with a team, old friends can meet regularly with minimal organisation. Trivia is an important community service your venue can offer to help your seniors to keep in touch.

MEMORY LANE TRIVIA FORMAT

2 HOUR SHOW OF 2 ROUNDS WITH PICTURE & MUSIC CLUES

Daytime trivia is beneficial to both venue and players. Interactive entertainment options for seniors are limited. They like stimulating activities to do with friends during the day, as many seniors prefer not to drive at night. Pubs and clubs are quieter during the day, so a regular crowd you can rely on to arrive for lunch is steady business for your kitchen staff.

The Memory Lane show lasts about two hours. It has two rounds with a break in between for people to use the amenities. It doesn't need a jackpot, just prizes for the first three winners and spot prizes to award during the show. Using the trivia as the draw, there is plenty of opportunity with this audience to offer related entertainment like memory lane dances and movies.

MEMORY LANE TRIVIA

DIFFERENT QUIZ EACH WEEK.

Memory Lane Trivia questions spotlight popular cultural events between 1940 and 2000.

Players will hear music they loved, talk about old movies and tell their own stories. They'll stay chatting long after the quiz finishes.

PLAYERS ENJOY THE MEMORIES.

Seniors need delicious brain food. Spoil them with seafood specials. Send the bus for them, make them feel welcome at the door.

Give prize vouchers for treats or a special lunch or event. They'll ask their friends to go with them.

PEOPLE RETURN EVERY WEEK.
